

Devin Lima

Former student and Billboard top 40 recording artist, Devin Lima has performed on the 2006 Grammys and MTV, as well as made numerous television appearances. He has also been featured in Billboard Magazine, Rolling Stone Magazine, and many other music publications. Devin achieved stardom in 1999 with the band LFO, when their hit single “Summer Girls” went to #1 on the US National Singles Chart and remained there for 6 weeks, selling 1.5 million copies. Their self-titled debut album, released that same summer, went double platinum in the US and their follow up album had two top ten singles and achieved gold record status.

Devin’s current project, Devin Lima and The Cadbury Diesel, has received outstanding reviews in such magazines as Billboard and AMP and several cuts are currently featured on movie sound tracks and TV shows.
